

A white catamaran sailboat is shown from a side profile, floating on calm water. The boat has two hulls and a central mast with complex rigging. The name 'FLORAMYÉ' is printed in large, dark letters on the side of the main hull, with 'FONTAINE PAJOT' in smaller letters below it. The background shows a hazy, overcast sky and a distant shoreline with some vegetation.

CROATIAN CREWED CATAMARAN

FLORAMYÉ CREW PROFILE

FLORAMYE

FOUNTAINE PAJOT

Alegria 67

CREW AND SERVICE

Floramye has three Croatian crew members: a Captain, Chef and Hostess.

While you are on board, your hosts will cater to your preferences. Feel free to ask your crew for recommendations on excursions, best restaurants, hikes, vineyards to visit ... or simply unwind on board; you will be well looked after.

FLORAMYE has a rotating crew made up of two captains and two hostesses who will vary depending on the week. This wider crew all know each other well. Each crew will contain one of the captains and one of the hostesses alongside permanent chef Igor.

Captain Nino has delivered the yacht to Croatia, prepared it for charter and started the season well. He will also rejoin the crew in September. Captain Luka will be on board for the remaining weeks. The captains will work alongside Hostess Vedrana and Nadia.

CAPTAIN NINO

Nino is a confident and passionate sailor with 20 years of experience in the yachting industry. Born in Split and raised in Komiža on Vis Island, Nino's connection with the sea began at an early age, growing up in a fishing family. His lifelong relationship with the sea has shaped him into a knowledgeable and skilled yachtsman.

His extensive experience and local knowledge allow him to plan personalised sailing routes, ensuring an unforgettable experience in Croatia aboard a luxury sailing yacht. Nino's intimate knowledge of the Adriatic enables him to adjust routes to meet all your demands, showcasing beautiful and unique places.

He is known for his friendly character, calm approach to problem-solving, and unwavering commitment to his clients' interests. He ensures that every guest feels comfortable and safe throughout their journey. Whether you prefer a discrete captain or an engaging host, Nino is approachable at all times and adapts to your preferences. Nino will always give his best to provide you with the ultimate sailing holiday in Croatia, sharing his rich knowledge and experience to create lasting memories.

CAPTAIN LUKA

Hailing from the picturesque town of Opatija, Croatia, captain Luka Divjakinja was destined for the sea. From early childhood, he spent every free moment sailing the Adriatic; what began as a youthful passion soon evolved into a lifelong calling. With over 15 years of professional experience as a skipper and captain, Luka has expertly navigated both sailing yachts and catamarans throughout the Adriatic and beyond, including international waters. His extensive knowledge, calm demeanour, and natural leadership make him a trusted and highly sought-after captain.

Luka's approach to yachting is rooted in professionalism, precision, and safety. He places the highest priority on guest and crew well-being, vessel maintenance, and flawless execution of every aspect of the journey—from route planning and navigation to creating an inviting and cheerful onboard atmosphere. Known for his communicative nature, flexibility, and team-oriented mindset, Luka is deeply committed to delivering excellence at sea. Off-duty, Luka continues to sail competitively. A true adrenaline enthusiast, he also has a passion for classic cars and auto racing.

For Luka, captaining a vessel is not just a profession—it is a way of life. His deep connection to the sea, love for adventure, and dedication to providing unforgettable sailing experiences are evident in every nautical mile.

CHEF IGOR

Igor expresses his culinary creativity through Mediterranean cuisine, particularly Dalmatian dishes, blending flavours and techniques from a range of culinary traditions, including Italian, Lebanese, Spanish, Turkish, and continental. He especially enjoys working with old recipes where simplicity beautifully complements the taste of quality, natural ingredients sourced from both land and sea.

He takes immense pride in plating dishes to ensure guests have a memorable first impression. However, Igor also cherishes the tradition of serving certain recipes “family style,” appreciating the stories behind these time-honoured dishes.

In his spare time, Igor runs his own industrial design studio in Zagreb, specializing in the design and creation of industrial-style home lighting and furniture, many of which have been showcased in exhibitions. His latest creative endeavour involves designing sunglasses.

HOSTESS VEDRANA

Vedrana grew up sailing with her parents and never really stopped—the boats just grew. With 11 seasons in the yachting world and a rich background in event planning, she's always happy to bring a special touch to any occasion, whether it's a birthday toast, beach picnic, or spontaneous dance party.

Guests love her calm, sunny presence and the way she always seems to appear with exactly what they needed.

Known for her good crew vibes, easy laugh, and impromptu yoga tips on deck, Vedrana also enjoys sharing local tips—whether guests are looking for a quiet beach, a great wine spot, or a bit of adventure.

HOSTESS NADIA

Raised in a sailing family and a former member of the Croatian national sailing team, Nađia has a lifelong connection to the sea and a strong foundation in maritime life. She holds a degree from the Arts Academy, specialising in painting restoration where she developed a refined eye for aesthetics and strong attention to detail.

While studying, she gained hands-on experience in the yachting industry, working as a hostess, chef, and crew member. These roles helped her build a well-rounded background in hospitality and taught her the importance of delivering exceptional service with precision and care.

Her extensive travels, including a solo 800 km thru-hike along the Camino de Santiago, have strengthened her resilience, adaptability, and cultural awareness – skills that translate seamlessly into her work onboard. Through her journeys, she has developed a deep respect for nature, local traditions, and sustainable living; values reflected in her interest in eco-conscious practices, food sourcing, and community-based agriculture, which she enjoys incorporating into her work onboard whenever possible.

With a background in history and tour guiding and being fluent in English, Italian and French, Nađia enjoys sharing engaging insights that enhance the guest experience and communicates with ease across cultures. She takes pride in offering guests a well-rounded, immersive experience and loves helping them connect with her homeland on a deeper, more authentic level making sure guests onboard feel comfortable and genuinely cared for throughout their journey at the sea.

